

Y3 Curriculum Overview

Autumn Term 2022

Working as Historians: The Romans & The Icenis

Maths

Place Value
Addition and Subtraction
Multiplication & Division

P.E

Fundamental skills
Hockey
Ball Skills
Outdoor Adventurous Activities

Computing (using Purple Mash)

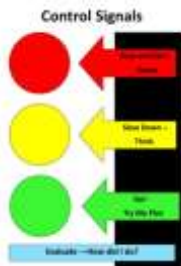

Online Safety
Coding

Music

Ukuleles
Sing Up - Chilled-out
clap rap

Art

Mosaics
Design a Roman Shield

Relationships and Sex Education

My Feelings
My Body

Science

Rocks and Soils:
Igneous, Metamorphic, Sedimentary
Forces and Magnets (attraction - repulsion) Working scientifically, keeping tests fair . How to improve procedures to obtain better results.

RE

Would celebrating Divali bring a sense of belonging to a Hindu child?
Has Christmas lost its true meaning?

PATHS

Self-control and managing our feelings.
Understanding feelings and emotions.

DT

Design, make and evaluate a Christmas biscuit along with its appropriate packaging.

History

We will be using a range of sources to research the Roman period in history. Distinguish, compare, and contrast sources such as artefacts, pictures, drawings, maps etc. Analyse different versions of the same story from historical records.
Communication of ideas and knowledge through discussion, writing, role-play, drama, drawing, etc.

English

- Share books linked to our topic including "Escape from Pompeii" by Christina Balit, "Roman Diary - The Journey of Ilionia" by Richard Platt.
- Descriptive writing - A Roman Town, Roman Centurian, Roman Houses. Explanation text, how to build a Roman Road, types of Roman dwelling.
- Modern Fiction, Poetry and non-fiction books.
- Revise Y2 phonics, learn Y3 Common Exception Words & Y3 spelling patterns.

Geography

Physical Geography around the UK.
Using an atlas and understanding a key.
Extracting information on human and physical characteristics in relation to continents, countries and cities. Countries which were part of the Roman Empire.